Victor Waller, Ex-CIA Officer

Post 11/17/75

Victor Wallen, a retired Central Intelligence Agency officer and longtime Alexandria resident, died unexpectedly on Oct. 18 in L'Aigle, France. He was 60.

Mr. Wallen, a native of McLeansboro, Ill., attended the University of Chicago until the outbreak of World War II. He was commissioned a first lieutenant and served in France until shortly before the German surrender in May, 1945.

Later that year, he joined the CIA's predecessor agency, the Office of Strategic Services (OSS). He retired in 1965.

He is survived by his wife, Guina, by a daughter, Jacqueline Wallen Underhill, and a grandchild, Eric, both of Shelburne, Vt. Burial was in L'Aigle, France.
